

LAST MINUTE PHOTOS WHO'S WHO WHAT'S WHAT IN THE NEWS

Crashing Salvos Shake Western Coast Homes

So heavy was the concussion of the salvos fired in battle practice with the twelve 14-inch guns of the dreadnaught Mississippi (above) and other mighty battleships off the California coast that windows along shore were shaken, although the firing was twenty-five miles and more off shore.

Pigmy Pachyderm

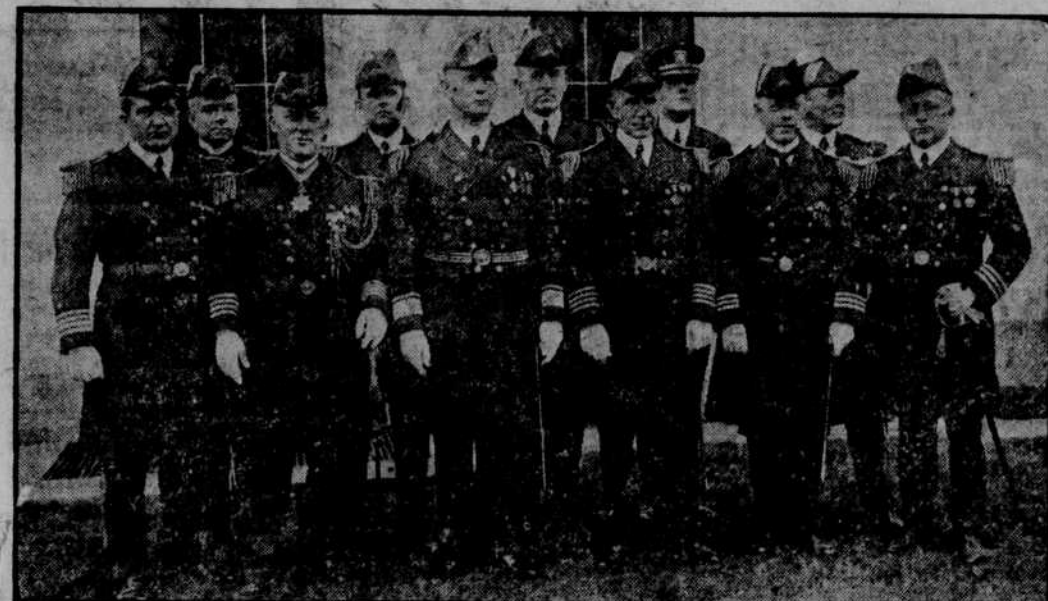

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Elephant quota apparently hasn't been exceeded at Ellis Island, for Miamba (above), with captor, Capt. E. A. Cunningham, pigmy of species, arrived in New York from French Congo.

The Louvain Restoration

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Typifying the restoration of the Louvain Library as America's war memorial to Belgium, this work shown above with its creator, Miss Peggy Shields of New York, is to be presented to the American National Committee to be sold for the benefit of the Million Dollar Memorial Fund now being raised.

They Will Help Brazil Build Up Her Navy

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Here is the U. S. Naval Commission recently appointed to aid Brazil in building an adequate navy. The group were photographed on leaving the White House after a call on the President. Front row (l. to r.), Capt. L. M. Overstreet, Capt. Thomas E. Kearney, Admiral Vogelgesang, head of the commission; Capt. J. J. Cheatham, Com. V. S. Rossiter and Com. A. M. Fitch; back row, Com. D. G. Ellyson, Com. A. T. Beauregard, Lieut. J. D. Pennington, Com. R. S. Holmes and Lieut. P. S. Carrol.

Sculptress's Striking Statue

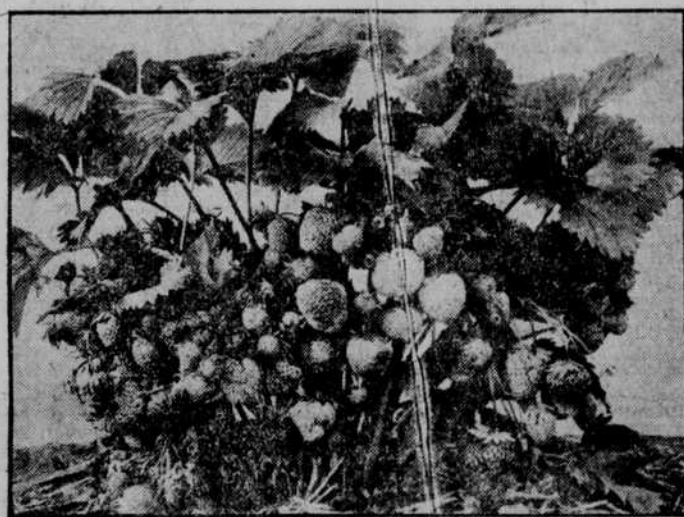

Art circles throughout the country are keenly interested in this latest work of Miss Anna Vaughn Hyatt, whose equestrian statue of Jean d'Arc on Riverside Drive, New York, is universally acclaimed as a superb piece of delicate modeling. In this picture Miss Hyatt is working on a statue of the Maid of Orleans, which will be placed in the French Chapel of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

This Is He

W. F. Wakeman, known as father of high tariff, is now in Washington working out a special tariff rate. He's treasurer of American Protective League, New York.

Paid $50,000 for Strawberry Plant

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Giant strawberry developed by fourteen years' effort. America's aristocrat of the berry world bears gigantic fruit year round and is named Rockhill, after its originator.

Tiger Salutes Our Hero

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
In a pilgrimage to the tomb of America's Unknown Hero, after calling on the President, Georges Clemenceau (right) placed this wreath on the tomb.

Death Quiz

U. S. Consul in Paris has asked reopening of case of Rose Shannessey, Minneapolis girl, said to have shot herself in Paris love mystery.

500 Want to Wed Her

Dr. Amy Kaukonen (right), Mayor of Fairport, Ohio, has received 500 proposals since last January, she declared, on visit to New York.

This Judge Kept It in the Family

Jailed

In anti-speeding drive in West jail sentences are given, Isola Williams being second girl to get one in Los Angeles. She drew five days.

Bow Wow! What's It All About?

The Rev. F. B. Stockdale of Bayside, L. I. (above), insists, despite scoffers, he can interpret animal language.

Cool and Sweet

We presume the thorns have not yet made themselves felt, for Miss Estelle Taylor seems to be poised calmly enough at the side of this ancient looking fountain.

A Flying Start

No wonder this youngster listened so intently at Bolling Field when Major Reinberg talked airplanes. He is Brean Patrick, son of head of Army Air Service.

(Copyright, 1922, Pacific & Atlantic Photos, Inc.)